7. JURY AND JUDGING FOR AWARDS

7.1 The Organizing Committee has invited a philatelist to chair and appoint the jury, which will comprise currently accredited judges of the PFSA or other suitably qualified judges from other Philatelic Federations.

7.2 The Jury may appoint Apprentice Jurors and call on any person as a consultant for the Jury.

7.3 The deliberations of the jury are confidential and its decisions, once announced, shall be final and irrevocable.

7.4 Exhibits will be judged on their individual merits and not against other collections.

7.5 Copied material (Photostats, scans or photographs) used in exhibits must be clearly labeled as such and must be at least 25% linearly larger or smaller than the actual size of the item depicted. Photograph used in Class 2 (Postal History) and Class 7 (Open Class) are permitted in full size if they are part of the development of the exhibit but must be original and noticed as such.

7.6 No exhibition page may indicate a price or value, nor shall any exhibition any way be advertised for sale.

7.7 Sixteen A4 or eight A3 scanned pages must be provided. Larger page formats may be used but the equivalent size of a frame 92cm x 120cm must be filled, failing which the exhibit will not be judged.

7.8 Judging shall be based on current FIP rules for each Class, where they exist. Where Exhibitors are not clear about FIP rules or PFSA interpretation thereof, contact the Organizing Committee stating the Class of interest.

7.9 Should the Jurors require to have a physical view of any item as shown on a scanned page, then the Jury reserves the right to have the original item examined for authenticity. The Exhibitor should make the item available for viewing prior to the jury pronouncement.

8. AWARDS

8.1 Exhibition points will be awarded out of a total of 100 points.

8.2 Exhibitors will receive a Certificate for each exhibit entered. The certificate will state the number of points awarded.

8.3 An Exhibition Participation Medal will be awarded if the Exhibitor request such medal and the payment reflects in the Entry Fee paid in the bank account or paypal account of the Organizing Committee.

9. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ON CERTAIN CLASSES

9.1 HISTORICAL, SOCIAL & SPECIAL

9.1.1 FIP introduced this sub-class under Postal History with effect from 1st January 2009. Exhibits in this class would include material developed by commerce and society for use in the postal system and may include an appropriate amount of non-philatelic material relevant to the subject.

9.1.2 Exhibits eligible to enter under Class 02 Historical/Social Studies may include but are not limited to the following fields: Telegram services, Greeting cards, Pictorial commercial envelopes used in the postal system, Historical, local and or regional studies; studies related to an event.

9.2 THE "OPEN PHILATELY" CLASS

9.2.1 The objectives of the Open Philately are to provide Interesting exhibits which stimulate both the committed and the new collector, to provide a competition for those who wish to exhibit outside traditional regulations and to permit the inclusion of a certain amount of non-philatelic material, such as labels, picture postcards, numismatic items, telephone cards, documents, pictures, postcards, photographs, drawings, newspaper clippings, etc.

9.2.2 In addition to all requirements for competitive exhibits, viz. entry forms and fees, introductory page, exhibit description, etc., the only stipulations are; the philatelic elements must not be less than 50% of the total area of items shown.

9.3 MODERN PHILATELY

9.3.1 This exhibition will include a modern philately class to encourage exhibits of modern material. The class will follow existing Philatelic rules but be restricted to stamp issues of the last approximately 25 years. However, there is meant to be some latitude in the dates of the material shown and there is not an arbitrary limit that material issued before 1997 cannot be shown as long as the majority of the exhibit fits the criteria of Modern Philately.

10. ACCEPTANCE OF REGULATIONS

The completion and submission of the Entry Form shall constitute acceptance of the rules governing the exhibition and indicate the Exhibitor's agreement to accept as final the Organizing Committee's decision in any matter which may arise but which is not covered by these rules.

11. EXHIBITION CERTIFICATE

11.1 Each Exhibitor will be given an electronic Certificate per entry and if paid for, a single Exhibition Participation Medal. In the case of multiple entries from an Exhibitor, only a single payment is necessary to obtain a Participation Medal.

11.2 Entries may be on view electronically on the PFSA Website <https://stampssa.africa> in July 2022.
